Amended Report of Administrator, Petition for Distribution upon Waiver of Accounting and Allowance of Fees for Attorney

DOD: 1/26/2004		ANTONETTE FREGOSO , Administrator, is petitioner.		NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: Continued from 2/25/13. As of 3/18/13 the following issues remain: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Petition was not verified. Probate Code §1021. Cynthia Arroyo was originally the attorney of record in this case. Petition states she waives Ms. Arroyo is only requesting reimbursement for costs incurred in the amount of $1,214.00. Need waiver of statutory fees from Ms. Arroyo. Cynthia Arroyo's billing statement includes reimbursement for $50.00 for sanctions, however the sanctions were set aside by minute order dated 6/8/2004. Therefore costs listed totals $1,164.00 and not $1,214.00 as requested. Need allowance or rejection of Creditor's Claim of Employment Development Department in the amount of $444,816.51 filed on 1/8/2007. California Rules of Court 7.401. NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS (cont):

8. Petition states the decedent's 1997 Buick was distributed to Kristina. Property of the estate cannot be distributed prior to creditor's being satisfied.
9. Petition states the "H" Street property was deeded to the personal representative in 2005. There is no "H" Street property listed on the inventory and appraisal. Need clarification.
10. Order does not comply with Local Rule 7.6.1.

Petition states all other beneficiaries have filed waivers of accounting of administrator and acceptance of $10,000 as their full beneficial interest in the estate on 6/6/11. Because of the EDD lien the proceeds could not be distributed from escrow. All the funds, except administration and attorney fees, had to be paid to the mortgage on the "J" Street property, or the EDD would not allow the partial release of the lien. Since there was no money remaining after the payment of title fees, costs, attorney fees and property taxes, the Personal Representative took $20,000 from her own retirement funds and paid all other beneficiaries $5,000.00 each. All other beneficiaries have signed an assignment of their share of the "J" Street property to the petitioner. Petitioner has used this property as collateral to acquire enough money to pay off the "I" Street property's mortgage, back property taxes, and other debts of the decedent. Petitioner is still making payments on these loans.

The "H" Street property was deeded to the personal representative in 2005 and used as collateral for loans to pay back taxes and mortgage payments on the "I" Street property. The decedent's portion of the "I" Street property was sold in July 2012 and the proceeds were applied to the mortgage on the "H" Street property. There is still an outstanding balance on the "H" Street property that is being paid in full by the personal representative [who now holds title to the property].

		Petitioner alleges that Samantha's mother was granted sole legal & physical custody of Samantha in April 2012 and her father was granted only non-overnight visitation every other weekend. Petitioners state that the mother failed to disclose to the family court that she is currently residing with a registered sex offender, George Brock, who was convicted of two separate offenses against children in 1985 and 2000. Petitioners state that the mother often leaves Samantha alone with Brock and Samantha has expressed that she is uncomfortable around him. Petitioners state that the mother often sends Samantha to stay with her Father (in violation of the courts April 2012 order) who has a felony conviction for child abuse and is currently in a volatile relationship and Samantha has witnessed domestic violence. Petitioners also allege that both parents ignore Samantha's health, as she has had an ear infection for over a month and neither parent has sought treatment for her. Petitioners state that prior to obtaining custody of Samantha in April, the mother hadn't seen Samantha for about 5 years. Petitioners state that they have raised Samantha the majority of her life.

Objection to Petition for Appointment of Guardian filed 02/11/13 by Tonya Boggs, mother, states: that she objects to Claude and Charee Boggs being appointed as guardian of Samantha and further states that Samantha does not want to live with them. She states that they have a history of not bringing Samantha to court and it is likely that they will not bring her to court. Further Objector states that the Petitioners have intimidated Samantha in the past and instructed her to not "say a word". She further states that they have hidden Samantha in Squaw Valley in the past. Objector states that the Boggs' Petition is filled with lies. She states that Samantha has been living with Patricia Reagan for the past 10 months and that Petitioners knew where Samantha was the whole time. Objector states that the Petitioners are after Samantha's social security money. Objector states that Samantha's best interests are met in the care of Patricia Reagan. Ms. Reagan is a nurse and has the financial means to provide for Samantha and also is well intentioned and provides Samantha with the love and attention she needs. At Ms. Reagan's house, Samantha has her own room and is happy. Objector states that it is her strong desire that Samantha remain in Ms. Reagan's care. Objector also attaches a letter from Samantha that outlines many reasons why she does not want to live with Claude and Charee Boggs.

Objection to Petition for Appointment of Guardian filed 02/11/13 by Randy Boggs, father, states: he objects to the appointment of Claude and Charee Boggs as guardians of Samantha. He states that his parents are not seeking guardianship because they are concerned for Samantha's well-being, but rather are seeking guardianship for financial gain. He states that he is aware that their roommate recently moved out and they need to find a way to make up the difference. He further alleges that the Petitioners have used his identity to rent an apartment and purchase a car without his knowledge. He further states that the Petitioners do not give Samantha the love and care she deserves and states that he has personally witnessed them yelling at her, putting her down, and forcing her to do chores they should be responsible for. He also states that they have failed at teaching her hygiene because they do not have good hygiene themselves. Objector states that the Petitioners lied in the Petition by say that he pushed his father down the stairs. He states that this is not true. Mr. Boggs further states that it would be in Samantha's best interest that Patricia Reagan be appointed her guardian. He states that Samantha has flourished under Ms. Reagan's care. Ms. Reagan has enrolled her in a school that meets her needs, she attends a youth group, she has had her first birthday party and first sleep overs. He states there is no better place for Samantha at this time than with Ms. Reagan.

	Duties/Supp	Declaration filed 3-19-13 by Guardian Maria Zaragoza states the children whose mother is deceased, including Jorge Eduardo Zaragoza, have lived in her home for about five years, including with their mother when she was alive. The maternal grandmother also lives in the home. Jorge's father has not been in his life until recently. Prior to the mother passing away, Petitioner refused to recognize Jorge Eduardo Zaragoza as his child. On several occasions, Ms. Zaragoza tried to show him pictures of his son, but he refused to look. The minor does not want to live with his father and new family as he is not familiar with them and is not used to them. Jorge and his siblings recently lost their mother and now show signs of being terrified with the idea of losing each other. The older children have expressed fear that they will lose their brother Jorge since they became aware of this proceeding. The guardian states the minor does not need a new family setting as he already has one and is very happy with this stable family.

Guardian states (Continued): The guardian is concerned that Petitioner wants to remove Jorge from the only family and home that he has ever known, and also change his name, and that if his father takes him away from his family now, it will make things worse, not better. The guardian states she tried to explain this to Petitioner, but he insisted that the minor needs to be with him. He does not appear to be concerned about what the minor wants or how he would feel if he were taken away from his family and siblings after the loss of his mother.

Guardian states that in her opinion, the Court should reduce the visitation, because the minor does not appear to be adjusting well. On or about 1-17-13, the parties had a four-way conference and at the meeting, the guardian realized that Petitioner is not focusing on the best interest of the child because he does not realize that the child does not want to leave his family.

Guardian states she would agree to revisit the visitation schedule as long as the minor shows signs of being accustomed to change and his new family. However, she is concerned about Petitioner permanently taking the child as he believes the child is young and will eventually get used to his new "real" family and forget how much he is used to his siblings he is now with. Petitioner does not care about the siblings, which is disturbing, because they care about their brother.

Guardian states she is concerned for the child every time he leaves, as he cries and hesitates to visit the father's home. The guardian asks the Court for the child to stay in her home and not be separated from his siblings.

Father: UNKNOWN

Paternal grandparents: UNKNOWN

Maternal grandmother: ELENA ALIPAZ

Petitioner states she has had progressively increasing visitation with Savannah since 2009 and currently has unsupervised visitation every 1st, 3rd, and 4th weekend each month from Friday at 5:00 pm or 10:00 am when school is not in session, to Sunday at 5:00 pm or optionally 8:30 pm upon notice to the guardian. The current visitation order also provides holiday/summer visitation. Savannah is now 14 years old, since having the above visitation schedule, she has bonded with Petitioner, her half-siblings, and her step-father. Petitioner believes that guardianship of Savannah is no longer required. Petitioner states that she has an appropriate size home where Savannah has her own room. Petitioner further states that the Guardian has reported to her that Savannah is having trouble in school. Petitioner states that her other children attend a private Christian school and if Savannah lived with them, she would attend school there too. All of her other children are excelling in school. Petitioner is concerned that Martha Aguilar works out of town and therefore is not home when Savannah gets home from school. Ms. Aguilar's elderly mother is there, however she has health issues and cannot provide adequate supervision for a teenage girl. Therefore Savannah is essentially able to do whatever she wants. Petitioner believes that Savannah's interest would be best served at her home where she will have plenty of structure, supervision, and a good education in a private school. The guardian Ms. Aguilar has previous indicated a willingness to terminate the guardianship and has stated that she can't handle Savannah now that she is a teenager. Ms. Aguilar has indicated that she would leave it up to Savannah whether she wanted to live with Petitioner full time. Petitioner does not believe this is appropriate as Savannah is a teenager and should not be put in a position to have to choose homes.

In Petitioners home, there is routine, rules, chores, accountability, etc. In Martha's home, there is little supervision and Savannah has free reign. It would be natural for a child to want to stay in a home like Martha's, but it is not in Savannah's best interest. Co-Guardian David Trujillo consents to the Petition to terminate the guardianship. Petitioner requests that Savannah be returned to her full custody. Petitioner states that Savannah has expressed a desire to live with her and there is absolutely no danger to Savannah if she is returned to Petitioner's custody, in fact, Petitioner believes it is in Savannah's best interest as she will have more opportunities to thrive in all aspects of her life if placed in Petitioner's custody.
